Seven Day Extensions:

Purpose: Extensions are provided to support students who face unplanned events, including ill-health, which may impact their ability to study and complete assessments. The extensions policy is part of the Assessment and Feedback Policy and applies to eligible pieces of coursework.

Eligibility and Usage:

- One Extension per Term: Students are allowed one extension per term for an eligible piece of coursework.
- Assignment Eligibility: Not all assignments are eligible for extensions. Check with your module leader for eligibility.

TLSR Students:

- Automatic Extension: Students registered with the disability and dyslexia team receive an automatic one-week extension for all individual coursework submissions.
- Additional Standard Extension: These students can also use one standard extension per term, giving them up to 14 days for one component. Always confirm with your module leader if an assignment is eligible for the TLSR extension.

Multiple Assessments:

- Wise Usage: Extensions should be used wisely. For multiple assessments impacted by unplanned events, follow the Extenuation process.
- Further Extenuation: If unable to engage with the assessment after using an extension, students may apply for extenuation.

Consequences of Late Submission Without Extensions:

- Within 24 Hours: Submissions within 24 hours late will lose 5% of the mark.
- After 24 Hours: Submissions after 24 hours will be awarded 0.

Guidance for Extensions:

- Support: Seek help from your Student Education and Experience Officer (SEEO) or the Hub.
- Academic Advisor: Discuss your need for extensions with your academic advisor for support.

Activating an Extension through online form:

- Submission: Complete the online Extension Form before 23:59hrs on the deadline date.
- Notification: The student and the Module Leader will receive a notification upon submission.
- Work Submission: Needs to submit work within 7 calendar days of the original deadline by 23:59hrs UK time. Late submissions will be invalid.
- Bank Holidays: If the extension includes a Bank Holiday Monday, you have 8 continuous days to submit.

Important Considerations:

- Honesty: Provide truthful information when completing the form.
- Ineligibility: Extensions won't be granted for ineligible assignments or late applications.
- Engagement: Extensions should not be used as a last-minute solution. Engage with academics to discuss issues early.
- Workload Management: Do not use extensions to manage conflicting deadlines.

Submission Process:

- Moodle Submission: Use the Extension submission link on Moodle. If submitting via MS Teams, inform your lecturer.

- Check Eligibility: Confirm with your Module Leader if the assessment component is eligible for extension.

Extension Form Link:

- Submit this form to activate an extension.

Assessment Deadline and New Submission Schedule:

| Assessment Deadline | New Submission Date | New Submission After Bank Holiday Monday |
|---|---|---|
| Monday | Following Monday | Following Tuesday |
| Tuesday | Following Tuesday | Following Wednesday |
| Wednesday | Following Wednesday | Following Thursday |
| Thursday | Following Thursday | Following Friday |

MFA Reset

A member from the Hub/IT should be able to reset the MFA for the student by entering the SN in the enquirers field in CRM and clicking on the contact of the student. Once that's done one just needs to click on the MFA Reset to reset the student's multifactor authenticator app.

Thank you for contacting the Student Hub. We have reset your Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA).

We have implemented MFA for all students and staff who access our services from off site. To set up MFA or update your details, follow this link

- Set-up MFA for the first time or update your details

| SS (Educom) | Social Sciences |
| PSY | Psychology |
| HSB | School of Health, Sport and Bioscience |

Partner Students:

Some of our students study at partner institutions (e.g. Babcock). If an issue relating to a record of a partner student is raised, this needs to be referred to the partner directly, as well as the Registry Partnership Team as we need them to confirm any amendments before UEL directly can resolve any issues.

Students can also email registry-partners@uel.ac.uk directly regarding the following issues:

- Name/DOB change
- Course Transfer
- Withdrawals
- Enrolment Issues
- Chair action request

Please prompt students to email the Teams, as they will contact the student back directly since they do not use CRM.

As you are unable to transfer CRM enquiries to the Partnerships team, please close your CRM enquiry with the relevant contact information and ensure that your timeline notes reflect the students query

Babcock Students

he primary purpose of the Babcock Registry team is to provide full administrative support for all operational teaching and learning activities related to the student life cycle on the following Policing Apprenticeship courses.

- BSc (Hons) Professional Policing Practice
- Graduate Diploma Professional Policing Practice
- Graduate Diploma Professional Policing Practice (Detective)

This includes delivering the highest standard of customer service when overseeing and delivering processes around timetabling, module diets, assessment, and student records in collaboration with the wider Registry Team. Babcock has their own phone line (0208 223 4999) and email for their students, which is BRS@uel.ac.uk .

This links provides an early indication of your achievement, and should your result indicate it is below the pass mark, you can begin preparing for resits (or seeking advice if resits already completed). Please do not contact your module leader if the provisional result is blank as this indicates the mark entry is incomplete, please check again a few days later.
- The other link is for the confirmed results following external moderation and approval by the Assessment Board. These are your official results that will contribute to your award and classification.

Note: One will be able to view their marks on UEL Direct when their module result has been released. If it is not yet visible, then please keep checking UEL Direct, and once they are released you will be able to view them. ## Chairs Action:

If one believes that the module results that have been uploaded are not correct, please contact the Hub on 0208 223 4444 or via the 'Enquiries' section of the student portal. The student needs to submit any evidence of incorrect marks or awards (for example Screenshots from UEL Direct or Moodle, or emails from academics) for us to deal with the request and escalate to the registry for them to raise a chairs action.

A Chair's action is an agreed change to a record that occurs outside of an Assessment Board. This includes:

- Late marks
- Updated progression decisions
- Missing / updated awards

All Chair's Actions must be requested via the relevant spreadsheet by the registry school team.

NOTE: Changing any part of a student results (even extenuation or Academic Misconduct) may impact on module results, progression code & award. All 3 must be reviewed when changing anything, this way all can be included in one form.

At the Assessment Board Chair’s Actions are presented as its own separate agenda item and a report is required to be collated of all changes since the previous board. Keeping track on Chair’s Actions as you go makes this report much easier at a busy time.

Progression Chair’s Actions are also noted in the SharePoint spreadsheet so that Student Records can make the required updates.

Registry School Timetabling Services

The Registry School Timetabling Service is responsible for the planning, production and publication of the teaching timetables. We liaise with a whole range of departments including Registry School Service teams, Course Records, Estates, IT Services and academic teams in ensuring students receive a clear timetable. We also process and respond to all ad hoc room booking requests.

If a student has a timetable clash, they can contact the Student Hub so that the Hub can further raise this to the registry school as soon as possible with full details of the clash including:

- Module codes
- Group number
- Day and time of clash

Seminar Group Change

All students are automatically allocated to their seminar and tutorial groups at the start of term. However, we understand that not every person will be able to attend the group they have originally been given. Therefore, in exceptional circumstances students may be able to move to a more suitable seminar or tutorial group.

Unfortunately, students will not be able to change groups for the following reasons:

- To join a friend or peer in another group
- To care for siblings
- To attend another course outside of the University of East London
- To attend to a job if you are in full time study
- Travel distance or issues
- Preference for a particular tutor/timeslot

If none of the above reasons apply to you, please complete a Group Change Form and submit it with supporting evidence to the Student Hub, via the Student Portal.
Please note: Incomplete forms or forms submitted without evidence will not be processed.
Deadline for group change requests is the second week of teaching.

Resits/Retakes

Students may be given up to three attempts to pass a module. Students who fail a module will be automatically entered into the next resit period, which counts as their second attempt unless they have been granted extenuation.
If an undergraduate student fails their resit, then their progression decision will determine how/if they continue with their studies.
Please note that if a student takes a third attempt, they will be required to retake the entire module, and they will be required to pay an extra tuition fee to cover the module.
Resit dates for any failed modules will be published via the Exam Timetable page on our Intranet.
Information on Re-submissions will be made available via the moodle page.

Student Engagement and Retention (SERT)

Attendance

To register attendance, the students need to swipe their access card on the attendance card reader in the room shown on the timetable. To be marked present, they need to do this no more than 10 minutes before the start of the event and no later than 15 minutes after. If they swipe before this time they will be marked absent, and if they swipe after 15 minutes of the event, the student will be marked as late.

Importance of Attendance and Engagement:

- International students must adhere to stringent attendance requirements in line with UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) regulations to maintain their student status and visa eligibility.
- Continuous engagement throughout the academic program is crucial to demonstrate commitment to studies and compliance with visa regulations, minimizing the risk of visa complications or potential withdrawal.

Monitoring Mechanisms and Course-specific Requirements:

- Timetabled Events (Taught):
    - Attendance is tracked through registered card swipes in designated on-campus learning spaces.
    - Failure to meet attendance requirements prompts intervention from the Student Engagement and Retention Team (SERT) for investigation and support.
- Malvern House:
    - Attendance is recorded through registers, supplemented by additional measures such as Compliance Officer meetings.
    - Non-compliance may result in warnings and subsequent withdrawal if attendance does not improve.
- Dissertation:
    - Regular meetings with the Dissertation Supervisor are mandatory, ensuring engagement with academic support and facilities.
    - Although formal classes may not be scheduled, adherence to on-campus engagement is vital to satisfy UKVI regulations.
- Post-Graduate Research (PGR):
    - Supervision meetings and updates on the PhD Manager system serve as primary monitoring tools.
    - Non-adherence prompts intervention from the Immigration Compliance team to rectify the situation.
- Work Placement Module:
    - Attendance is verified through weekly submission of timesheets, confirming on-site presence.

    - Failure to submit timesheets or gain approval from placement providers may jeopardize the student's position.

- Extended Work Project (EWP):
    - Supervisory oversight ensures regular engagement and progress updates throughout the project duration.

Policy Considerations and Absence Management:

- Living off-campus:
    - Geographic distance from the university is not a valid reason for non-attendance, necessitating proactive measures to ensure on-campus presence.
- Maternity/Paternity Leave:
    - UKVI does not recognize such leave for students on a Student visa, mandating attendance regardless of personal circumstances.
- Health Issues:
    - Encouragement is provided to seek support from local healthcare services, with certified medical documentation potentially required to justify absences.
- Bereavements:
    - Limited authorized absence is granted for immediate family bereavements, subject to validation through appropriate documentation.

Steps for Managing Absences:

- Submission of the Absence Form notifies SERT of non-attendance, facilitating intervention and support.
- Preparation of evidence for absences ensures compliance with university requirements and potential future inquiries.
- Early engagement with support services mitigates risks associated with prolonged absence and aids in exploring available options, such as breaks in studies.

Support Services Available:

- The Student Wellbeing Service offers comprehensive support for emotional and mental health concerns, addressing potential barriers to attendance.
- The International Student Advice (ISA) Service provides specialized guidance on immigration matters, assisting students in navigating visa-related challenges.
- Student Education & Experience Officers serve as primary points of contact for addressing attendance-related queries and facilitating necessary assistance.

What happens when a student does not attend and gets an email reminder from the SERT?

The Student Engagement and Retention Team (SERT) will email the student to confirm the decision to withdraw from studies, providing details of the recorded period of non-attendance.

If the student wishes to appeal the withdrawal decision, they will be given the opportunity to do so. SERT will email instructions for the appeal process.

The student will have 7 calendar days to submit their appeal and is advised to continue attending classes during this period while awaiting the appeal outcome.

If the appeal is successful, SERT will confirm the decision, and the student should resume attending study-related sessions in person. However, a record of their previous non-attendance will be retained and may influence any future appeals.

During the appeal process, the student is expected to continue attending their classes until a decision is reached.

The student can submit supporting evidence with their appeal, including documentation from academic staff or healthcare professionals if the non-attendance is due to medical reasons. The university will review all evidence provided, along with the student's attendance records, academic performance, and other relevant factors, to determine the appeal outcome.

If the appeal is unsuccessful, the student will be notified via email that they will be withdrawn from studies, along with the reasons for the decision.

The university will inform UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) of the student's withdrawal due to non-attendance. UKVI will grant the student 60 days to leave the UK or switch to another visa category.

The student will receive an email confirmation once the report to UKVI confirming withdrawal of Student visa sponsorship has been actioned.

Study Breaks and Withdrawal

When faced with unforeseen circumstances or personal challenges, students may find it necessary to interrupt or withdraw from their studies at the University of East London (UEL). Recognizing the diverse reasons that may prompt such decisions, UEL offers comprehensive support services to assist students in overcoming barriers to study. Students are encouraged to reach out to these support services for assistance.

Taking a break or withdrawing is an important decision. We recommend you seek advice before making a final decision. You can speak to the hub, your Academic Advisor or Course Leader, or the Students Union UELSU for impartial advise.

Study Breaks

Taking a break, often referred to as deferring or interrupting studies, involves pausing academic endeavours for a term or an entire academic year, with the intention of resuming studies at a later date. However, the decision to grant a study break rest with UEL, and authorization is required.

Deferring

If a student opts to defer their entry within the first two weeks of the academic term, it entails postponing the start of their course to a later opportunity, typically the following academic year. UEL's academic calendar generally commences in September, with some courses offering a January start date. In cases where the course begins in January, students may specify whether they require a six-month break or prefer to defer for the entire academic year.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal entails discontinuing studies and departing from UEL. It is considered a last resort and should only be pursued if no other alternatives are viable. Despite withdrawing from UEL, students retain the option to reapply for enrolment in future courses.

International Students

International students who have travelled to the UK on a Student Visa must contact the International Student Advice (ISA) Team if they are thinking of going on a break or withdrawing. If you are no longer studying that would curtail your student visa so would affect your legal status in the UK.

Drop-In sessions:

Students encountering obstacles to learning or facing challenges that hinder their course engagement are encouraged to utilize the Education and Experience Drop-ins service. At both the Docklands and Stratford campuses, Student Education and Experience Officers are available for drop-in sessions during specific days and times.

Additionally, students have the option to schedule a call with one of the Student Education and Experience Officers for personalized assistance and support.

Disability & Dyslexia Team

The Disability and Dyslexia team is a small and diverse team of advisors who are passionate about enabling students to overcome barriers to their learning. We understand no two individuals are the same and incorporate this into the way we support our students by providing individual solutions and impartial advice. They support students throughout their journey at UEL and will remain a point of contact for the duration of your course.

Accessing Support

- To access support during their studies at UEL, students need to attend an appointment with the Disability & Dyslexia Team.
- This appointment is to discuss individual support requirements.
- Students are encouraged to contact the team as soon as possible to avoid delays in accessing support.

Booking an Appointment

- Appointments can be booked by contacting the Student Hub at 0208 223 4444 or by emailing availability to ddac@uel.ac.uk.
- Appointments are available face-to-face, by phone, and via video call (Microsoft Teams).
- If any support, such as a BSL interpreter, is needed for the appointment, students should inform the team when booking.

Support Available

- The team offers support in various areas, including:

    - Exams and Assessment: Extra time for exams and coursework certificates.
    - Library Support: Extended library loans and alternative formats.
    - In-Class and Teaching Support: Access to support workers and materials in advance.
- All support is tailored to the student's individual needs and diagnosis.

Creating a Teaching and Learning Support Requirements (TLSR) Form

- In discussion with the student, a TLSR form will be created.
- With the student's permission, this form is sent to their school to implement the recommended support.

Setting Up Support

- To set up support, evidence of diagnosis is required. Students can refer to the medical and diagnostic evidence page for acceptable evidence.
- A registration appointment needs to be booked by emailing ddac@uel.ac.uk or calling the Student Hub at 0208 223 4444.
- It may take some time to set up support, and not all recommendations may be implemented immediately. For example, examination arrangements and one-on-one support may have deadlines outlined on the exam and assessment arrangements page.

Additional Support

- UK (home) students can apply for Disabled Students Allowance (DSA), a Government Grant providing Equipment, Travel, and Non-Medical Helper support (e.g., mentoring and tutoring) following an independent Needs Assessment.
- Additional information on DSA is available on the university's website.
- A range of support is available to all students at the university, detailed on the support for all students page.

Support Not Provided

- While academic support is offered to ensure accessibility to studies, recommendations for social and care services to facilitate daily living support (such as carers or major adaptations to accommodation) cannot be made.
- These recommendations should be made by the Local Authority Social Care Team, and the Disability and Dyslexia Team's contact email (ddac@uel.ac.uk) should be provided to them.

Confidentiality and Sharing Information

- To set up support, the team requires the student's consent. No information about support requirements or disability will be shared without permission.
- Consent can be tailored to ensure information is shared only with specified people and services.
- Students with concerns about sharing their disability or support information are encouraged to discuss this with an adviser.

- Information related to a student's condition will be held for a maximum of six years from the course start date. If the course duration exceeds six years, records will be retained until one year after graduation. All records are stored electronically and will be deleted at the end of the retention period.

Contact Information

- Questions can be emailed to ddac@uel.ac.uk.
- Drop-in or registration appointments can be booked by contacting the Student Hub at 0208 223 4444 or by emailing availability to ddac@uel.ac.uk.
- Appointments are available face-to-face, by phone, and via video call (Microsoft Teams).

Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA) Support

What DSA Provides

- Assistive Technology: Specialist equipment, software, and training.
- Non-Medical Helpers: Specialist note-takers, BSL interpreters, specialist study skills tutors, and mentors.
- Travel Allowance: Financial support for travel related to studies.

What DSA Does Not Cover

- Non-study related disability costs (e.g., personal care).
- Tuition fees and living costs.
- General student expenses such as books or food.
- Unlike PIP and other Government benefits, DSA does not provide funding via direct payments to the student's bank account. Instead, DSA provides access to support, with all payments made directly to the service providers.

Eligibility for DSA

- Students who have applied for or are studying a Higher Education course (including foundation degrees) can apply.
- This funding is for UK students or those who have been residing in the UK for a minimum of 5 years.
- International and EU students are not eligible for DSA but can refer to the Support for International Students page for alternative support options.

Medical Evidence Requirements

- A formal diagnosis and evidence are needed to apply for DSA. This includes a letter from a Doctor (GP or consultant) confirming the diagnosis and symptoms.
- If the required evidence is not available, students can ask their doctor to complete the DSA Disability Evidence form.

- For Specific Learning Differences (e.g., Dyslexia, Dyspraxia), a full diagnostic report from a qualified Specialist Teacher or Educational Psychologist is required. For information on obtaining a diagnosis or report, students can refer to the Testing for Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, and ADHD page.

Application Process

- For those already applying for student finance, the easiest way to start the DSA application is via the Student Finance account.
- Students who are not applying for student finance need to complete one of two different forms, depending on their course and mode of study. These forms are available on the Student Finance Forms - GOV.UK page.
- Forms are also available in alternative formats such as Braille, large print, or audio. These can be requested by emailing brailleandlargefont@slc.co.uk or calling 0141 243 3686.

Contact Information for Assistance

- Disability and Dyslexia Team:
    - Call: 0208 223 4444 (request a Drop-in with DDT)
    - Email: ddac@uel.ac.uk
- DSA Team:
    - Call: 0300 100 0607
    - Email: DSA_Team@slc.co.uk

DSA Study Needs Assessment

- Once the DSA application is processed and accepted, students will receive a letter inviting them to book a DSA Study Needs Assessment at an Access Centre. There are centres across the UK, including UEL's Access Centre at the Stratford campus.
- The assessment is designed to identify the equipment and support needed to overcome barriers to studying. Students will work with an assessor to find the best solutions and have opportunities to test different equipment and software.

Post-Assessment Process

- The Needs Assessor will submit a report to DSA for review. After review, DSA will send a letter confirming which recommendations have been approved, along with instructions and contact details for accessing the support.
- Students needing assistance in arranging their support should book an appointment with the Disability & Dyslexia Team by calling 0208 223 4444 or emailing ddac@uel.ac.uk.

If Not Eligible for DSA

- Sometimes DSA applications are not approved due to insufficient evidence or diagnosis. In such cases, students can complete the DSA medical evidence form and request reconsideration.

- Students who are not eligible for DSA (e.g., EU or international students) or lack a formal diagnosis can explore alternative bursaries provided by charities, such as the Snowdon Trust Grant (up to £3000) and the Health Association Bursary (up to £500).

Students are encouraged to check their eligibility for these grants and bursaries.

Exam and Assessment Arrangements

Overview Exam adjustments are provided for students with disabilities, including those with long-term physical or mental health conditions and specific learning differences (SLDs) such as dyslexia. These adjustments ensure students are not disadvantaged during exams.

Key Information

- Deadline for Accessing Exam Adjustments
  - Students must register for support arrangements with the Disability & Dyslexia Team before the termly exam deadline, which is in week 7 of each term. For Semester One exams, the deadline is typically early November. Contact the Disability and Dyslexia Team at ddac@uel.ac.uk for specific dates.
  - If the deadline is missed, access to exam arrangements for that term cannot be guaranteed, but arrangements can be made for the next term.
- How to Register for Exam Adjustments
  - Students needing exam adjustments should book an appointment with the Disability and Dyslexia Team as soon as possible and provide medical and diagnostic evidence of their condition.
  - If the deadline is missed, students may submit a claim for extenuation, with guidance available from the UEL Students' Union.
  - Students who previously used a reader or scribe in school or college are encouraged to use assistive technology such as text-to-speech and dictation software.
- Changes in Circumstances or Condition
  - If exam arrangements need to be reviewed or changed, students should contact the Disability & Dyslexia Team before the end of week 7 of the term. Additional evidence may be required to support changes.
  - Book an appointment with the Disability & Dyslexia Team if needs change.

Contact Information

- Email: ddac@uel.ac.uk
- Phone: 0208 223 4444
- For appointments, provide full availability for 2 weeks and preferred appointment type (telephone, face-to-face, or video call).

In-Class Tests

- Formal exams are organised by the assessment unit, while in-class tests are organised by the school, with the module leader responsible for implementing exam arrangements.

- If an examination support worker, such as a scribe, is recommended in the Teaching and Learning Support Requirements, students should confirm with their module leader that the support has been arranged.
- Concerns about exam support not being in place should be directed to the Disability and Dyslexia Team via email (ddac@uel.ac.uk) or the student portal.

Student Responsibilities for Exams

- Inform the Disability & Dyslexia Team if support or exam arrangements need to be reviewed.
- Familiarize themselves with exam information in preparation for exams.
- Check the exam timetable for centrally organised exams (typically in May and January) to be aware of exam dates and times.
- Contact the Disability and Dyslexia Team if exam arrangement information is not provided one week before the exam.
- The assessment unit will contact students about specific exam arrangements approximately three weeks prior to exams.

By following these guidelines, students can ensure they receive the necessary support and adjustments for their exams and assessments, helping them to perform to the best of their abilities.

Screening and Assessment Guidance - Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, Dyscalculia, ADHD, and Autism

At UEL, support is available for students seeking a formal assessment for a specific learning difference (SpLD). Here is the information on obtaining a diagnostic assessment.

Screening Tests

Screenings are available online free of charge and are not a diagnosis but assess eligibility for a diagnostic assessment. The full cost of an assessment through a service can be up to £325.

Note: For ADHD Screening and assessment information, refer to the section on ADHD Assessments. Autism assessments are not offered directly; see Autism Spectrum Condition Assessment and Screening for external resources.

The Diagnostic Process

UEL supports students in obtaining a diagnostic assessment for an SpLD. However, students can independently obtain a diagnosis if they prefer. The process involves three steps:

1. Screening Test: A series of short exercises or questionnaires to identify areas of strength and areas for improvement in your cognitive profile. This test indicates the likelihood of an SpLD, such as Dyslexia or Dyspraxia. A full diagnostic assessment is still required for a formal diagnosis.
    - Dyspraxia Screening
    - Dyscalculia Screening
    - Dyslexia Screening

2. Screening Feedback Appointment: Discuss the screening results and next steps with an advisor. To book an appointment, call the Student Hub at 0208 223 4444 or email ddac@uel.ac.uk with your availability.
3. Diagnostic Assessment: If recommended, this assessment is conducted by a qualified professional such as an Educational Psychologist or specialist teacher. It includes a discussion of your educational experience and tests to identify any SpLD. The assessment takes 2-3 hours, and results are typically provided within two weeks.

ADHD Assessment and Screening

Students can access a free ADHD screening and receive a supporting letter to take to their GP for a referral.

- ADHD Screening

For a discussion on screening results and diagnostic pathways, book a Screening Feedback Appointment. More information on diagnostic pathways can be found at ADHD UK Diagnosis Pathways.

Autism Spectrum Condition Assessment and Screening

Currently, UEL does not offer a screening process for autism. For external diagnostic assessments, book a Screening Feedback Appointment with an advisor or discuss a referral with your GP. A Disability Evidence Form detailing a 'working diagnosis of Autism' or 'being referred for an Autism assessment' from your GP can help you register with the DDT team for internal support and potentially further support through SFE's Disabled Students Allowance.

Admissions/Applicant Queries:

The Admissions team is responsible for ensuring a fair, efficient and clear application process for applicants to undergraduate and postgraduate courses across the University. Within this, we look after application processing, handling enquiries, facilitating academic interviews, assisting with visa applications for non-UK applicants and many other admissions related activities.

Fee Status Assessment at UEL

Before proceeding with enrolment, the University of East London (UEL) must assess your fee status. This classification determines whether you are:

- Home Fee Payer
- Islands (British Isles) Fee Payer
- Overseas Fee Payer

Your tuition fees depend on various factors, including your nationality, immigration status in the UK, residence history, and activities prior to the course start. Admissions staff are solely authorized to determine your fee status, adhering to UK regulations and guidance from the UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA).

If further information is needed, you'll receive a Fee Status Questionnaire. This document outlines the evidence required, such as proof of permanent residence in the UK/EU and UK residence for the three years preceding the course. Assessments are carried out individually, considering each applicant's circumstances according to UKCISA guidance.

Please note that all information provided is confidential and handled in accordance with UEL's Data Protection Policy. For more details, visit www.ukcisa.org.uk or contact our Applicant Engagement team at +44 (0)20 8223 3333 (Monday to Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm) or via Live Chat.

You should refer someone to Admissions under the following circumstances:

1. If an applicant calls about a request from Admissions to upload documents:
    - If they have a CLR number and they are calling to say they don't have the documents.
    - If they have a 7 digit UEL number and they are calling to say they can't meet the deadline given or do not have their documents.
2. Please refer the caller to Admissions if:
    - They want to submit a clearing application over the phone.
    - They need an update and have a reference number beginning CLR.
    - Their UEL 7 digit student number is in SITS screen ACD, but not in screen QSU.
    - They are in QSU but wish to challenge their fee status.
    - They have an application in progress but want to change the course or any of their details.
3. If an applicant calls about a request from Admissions to upload documents and they have a UEL 7 digit number and are in ACD:
    - Check the clearance check tab where the 4 radio buttons indicate the status:
        - Not checked
        - Pending
        - Failed (refer them to Admissions for further advice)
        - Passed check
4. For returning students:
    - If a student has left or been withdrawn and calls saying they wish to come back, they can submit an application online or via the Clearing Hotline.
    - They will need their previous UEL student number.
    - You will not be required to give them advice, but if they ask if they are able to come back, please say that their application will be assessed and the Admissions team will advise them of the outcome by email.

Deferral

If one hasn't yet enrolled or received an offer, they should reach out to the Applicant Enquiries team at 0208 223 3333 to request a deferral of their offer. In case of partial enrolment, they should contact the Student Hub via the 'Enquiries' section of the student portal to notify the relevant teams about their deferral request. If enrolment for the current academic year is complete, they should consult our Student Initiated Withdrawal Policy, available on the University website by searching for 'Student Initiated'.

It's essential to note that tuition fees may still be applicable for periods of study undertaken (details are available in our Tuition Fee Policy). If one is receiving Student Finance, withdrawing from the program may impact future funding. In such cases, they should contact the Student Money Advice and Rights Team for further guidance.

For those deciding to withdraw from the University, they should complete the Self-Withdrawal Form, which will be issued to them. After submission, they can expect to be notified of any updates regarding their request within 3-5 working days. Support and alternatives will be explored during this process to ensure awareness of implications and available assistance.

Should further assistance or guidance be needed, individuals can reach out to the Student Hub via the 'Enquiries' section of the student portal.

DBS

Overview:

- A DBS disclosure includes an individual's convictions, cautions, reprimands, and warnings, along with information relevant to suitability for positions involving work with children and/or vulnerable adults.

- International students need to complete a DBS check upon arrival in the UK.

Application Process:

- The university uses an online DBS provider - First Advantage Know Your People. Applicants will receive details of the process upon accepting their offer.
- Current students requiring a DBS check should request the DBS clearance form from the Hub and complete an online application via the provider.
- It's recommended to register for the DBS Update Service to keep the certificate up to date.

Occupational Health / Fitness to Teach:

- Some courses may require Occupational Health clearance. Healthcare students need to complete an enhanced occupational health assessment.
- Trainee teachers must be assessed as fit to teach by Maitland Medical.
- It's important to disclose any particular need or disability for appropriate support.

FAQs:

- The enhanced DBS check costs £56.
- ID documents must be presented for verification; photocopies are not accepted.
- The processing time for a DBS check is typically two to four weeks.
- If a certificate is not received within 14 days, applicants should contact the DBS.
- Applicants with criminal convictions will be assessed for suitability.
- Lost certificates require a replacement at the applicant's expense.
- Existing DBS certificates may be considered if registered with the DBS Update Service.
- The DBS application fee is non-refundable.

This comprehensive guide ensures transparency and fairness in the DBS process for both applicants and the university.

Credit Control

Payment Plans:

Students can get in touch with the Credit Control team to talk about setting up payment plans for their fees.

Outstanding Balances:

Students having outstanding fees will cause their results, awards, certificates, letter requests being withheld until they are able to pay off the fees.  A debt flag on STU will show if student has a debt.

Authority to enrol:

When a student missed their enrolment deadline, they could request for a late enrolment known as ATE, this process involves gaining permission from the ISA, Programme Leader as well as credit controls approval. If student’s fees are fine, credit control should approve of the ATE.

Refunds:

Refund Policy:

Refunds must be made in writing to the Finance and Registry Help Team at finance.registry@uel.ac.uk

Refunds are generally processed three weeks from date of receipt of the e-mail but during peak periods (enrolment), the processing time may increase.

Receiving Funds:

Refunds will go back against the original payment in compliance with the Bank's Card Rules.

Early Payment Discount:

If you are starting your postgraduate course in the academic year 2024/25, you can save 5 per cent on your course fees by paying them in full.

All UK, and EU nationals with settled and pre-settled status and international applicants are eligible for the discount.

No application is needed, it is possible to get the discount if you pay in full before the last 2 weeks before teaching week starts.

Post Graduate Funding:

The credit control team deal with the post graduate funding for students, if student calls regarding this, refer them to Credit Controls phone number or email.

A student cannot enrol with a debt.

There are no alternative instalment plans available.

Students using a bank loan to pay fees will need to enrol as a self-financing student.

(Link Fee Policy)

Any other Query involving credit control which is not specifically stated on this, refer them to 0208 223 4444 or creditcontrol@uel.ac.uk

s

Fee Status:

Before credit control can progress with students' enrolment at UEL, we'll need to assess the amount of tuition fees that they should pay. We do this by determining what is referred to as 'fee status'. This will classify students as:

- a home fee payer

- an islands (British Isles) fee payer
- an overseas fee-payer

The tuition fees you are charged will depend on:

- your nationality
- your immigration status in the UK
- where you have been living
- what you have been doing for the three years prior to the start of your course.

Admissions staff at the University of East London are the only people who are permitted to determine your fee status for the purpose of tuition fees.

This fee status assessment is made in line with UK regulations and guidance issued by the UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA)

For more information regarding student's fee assessment, students will have to call up 0208 223 3333 for the applicant enquiry team for further information regarding this.

How the Credit Control assess for the fee status:

If credit control requires further information from students to determine their fee status, they will send a Fee Status Questionnaire for students to complete and return to the tea, with supporting evidence of:

1. The right of permanent residence in the UK/EU. Examples of documents they will need to provide, include a copy of the relevant pages of their passport (pages confirming name and nationality) and any other supporting documentation that shows their right to remain in the UK.
2. Residence in the UK for the three years immediately before the start of the course and not for full-time education. Examples of documents they'll need to provide include three years of utility bills and payslips (for a single month from each of the three years preceding the start of your course).

The Fee Status Questionnaire specifies the documentation required depending on their situation.

They carry out assessments for tuition fees on an individual basis and consider the circumstances of each applicant using the UK Council for International Student Affairs (UKCISA) guidance.

Assessments cannot be carried out until students have made an application for admission, and the University have offered a place for the student.

International Student Advice (ISA) Service (sharepoint.com)

Right To Study Check: (CV Status)

All international students who require a visa must complete a 'Right to Study' check, where they will be required to provide their immigration documents to prove that they have the right to study in the UK. This is a requirement in order to complete enrolment at the University of East London.

Some international students may have been asked to provide documents as part of student's applicant journey. They will still be required to complete the Right to Study check task to complete enrolment as a student.

Documents that are required for Right to study check:

- Passport - Front page and biodata (photo image, full name, passport number, nationality, date of issue and expiry date)

- 90-day visa vignette - This is your temporary entry visa that you would receive in your passport if you applied outside of the UK to allow you to enter the UK. Your visa vignette should be date stamped by a Border Force Officer when your pass-through UK immigration control. This shows when you entered the UK. Please provide the copy that shows the date you entered the UK.

  If you entered the UK using the eGates: If you entered the UK using the eGates, you will not be given a date stamp on your visa vignette and will need to keep evidence of the date that you entered the UK (such as flight tickets and/or boarding pass) and provide these in addition to your other documents when you complete the visa section of your Right to Study check. You will also need to keep these documents safe for the duration of your stay in the UK to prove the date that you entered the UK.

- BRP decision letter - This is a letter from UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) confirming your application has been successful (and should outline where you need to collect your BRP card)

- Biometric Residence Permit (BRP) - If you are issued with a BRP, this is your visa card that shows the duration of your permission to stay (remain) in the UK. You must upload a copy of the front and back in order to complete the check.

Students can engage with their right to study check on UEL DIRECT under the option “My Tasks”.

Once all documents have been uploaded, it will take up to 3 working days to be reviewed upon which a student’s status will then be changed from CV to C status.
If students do not engage fully with the checks and is sponsored by the University, they run the risk of their sponsorship being withdrawn which means they cannot continue their studies and will need to leave the UK.

Applying for a Visa inside of the UK:

Switching to Student VISA from inside the UK:

Students may be able to switch to a student visa from inside the UK if they hold the correct immigration permission.

Students cannot switch if they have one of the following visas and are based in the UK:

- Visit visa.
- Short-term student visa
- Parent of a child student visa
- Seasonal worker visa
- Domestic worker in a private household visa
- Leave outside the immigration rules.

If students current visa is listed above, they will need to apply for Student visa in their home country. If their current visa allows them to switch to the student visa route inside the UK, they must ensure they meet all the other requirements.

The 28-day Gap rule

There should not be more than a 28-day gap between student’s current visa expiring and the start of their new course. If the gap between the expiry date of their current visa and the course date is more than 28 days, then, they should seek further advice from the ISA team via 0208 223 4444.

Student Visa Application Process:

Completing visa application form

Once CAS has been issued, students should check it carefully to ensure all details are correct.

It is advised they apply as soon as they receive their CAS so that they can receive a decision as early as possible and before their current visa expires.

If students leave it too late to apply, their visa may not be granted in time, and they will be unable to start their course. The University of East London cannot permit students to join their course after the latest date on enrolment as stated on their CAS.

Students can start completing the online Student visa application form once they have received their CAS using the guide linked above to help. Visa application will not be complete until students pay the visa application fees and the Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS).

The cost of the standard Student visa application is currently £490. Students should usually get a decision within 8 weeks (standard only) once they've applied online to switch to or extend a Student visa.

Students may be able to pay to get a faster decision at a high cost – they will be notified if this option is available to them during the visa application process.

Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS)

The Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS) is a mandatory charge that students must pay. This entitles them to access the National Health Service (NHS) if they become unwell or have an accident during their stay in the UK. They must pay for the IHS even if they have private medical insurance.

The current charge is £470 per person for each year of the visa they are applying for. The UK Government has announced plans to increase the IHS fee to £776 per person per year of the visa, and the increase will apply to visa applications made on or after 6 February 2024. How much they pay overall will depend on how much leave they are granted.

Where the length of leave granted is six months or less, the amount they would pay will be half the annual surcharge.

Where their application includes part of a year that is for more than six months, they will be required to pay the full year (For example, if their length of leave is one year, six months and two days you will have to pay the surcharge for two years).

They can calculate their Immigration Health Surcharge on the UK Government website.

UKVI will contact them if they are required to pay a further surcharge after they submit the visa application. They must ensure that they make the payment before the deadline that they give them.

Travelling whilst the application is pending.

Students are advised not to leave the country whilst their visa application is pending. If they do leave the country, they are automatically treated as having withdrawn their application. There is a high chance that this will have serious visa implications for students.

Applying for Visa outside the UK:

When student is applying for their visa from outside of the UK, they must ensure.

Passport

They must submit a valid passport in support of their visa application. Their passport will need at least one full page that is blank on both sides.

Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)

They must have a CAS, for the University of East London, before they make their student visa application. When they receive their CAS, they should check that the information is correct, and their personal details match their passport. More information about 'What is a CAS?' can be found on the student visa page.

Qualification Documents

Their CAS will state any qualifications used as part of the assessment for their admission to their course. As the University of East London is a Higher Education Provider (HEP), if they are applying to study a course at degree level (RQF 6) or above they are not required to provide evidence of their qualifications. If they are a national of a country listed on the UKVI list of 'low-risk' nationals, they qualify for differentiation arrangements for their student visa application and are not required to submit their qualifications with their application. However, UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) may request this evidence during the application process, so it is important to have their qualifications available and in the required format. Please refer to the section 'Differentiation arrangements' for more information.

English Language Documents

Their CAS will state any English language document used as part of the assessment for their admission to their course, which they need to submit to make their student visa application. If their CAS states that they are a national from a majority English speaking country as defined by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) or the University, as a Higher Education Provider (HEP), has assessed their English language ability and it is at the required level, they are not required to submit evidence of their English language document.

Financial Documents

The student visa application requirements are very strict, it is important to ensure that their financial documents contain all the required information. Please refer to the 'Financial requirements' and 'Financial Documents' tab for more information.

Tuberculosis (TB) Test Certificate

They will need to take a TB test and submit their TB test certificate with their visa application if they are coming to the UK for more than six months and they have been living for at least six months in one of the countries specified by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI). The test must be taken at a TB test clinic that has been approved by UKVI. The test will involve having a chest x-ray and if their test shows that they do not have TB, they will be issued with a certificate which is valid for six months. They must include this certificate in support of their visa application. Please note the requirement to have this test, and provide evidence with their visa application, is dependent on where they are, or have been, resident and not on their nationality.

Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) Certificate

They may require an Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS) certificate if they are undertaking a certain course in subject areas such as, but not limited to, engineering, technology, and science at master’s or PhD level. Their offer letter and their CAS will tell them if they need an ATAS certificate. The ATAS certificate is issued by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) for permission to study the course. They must be issued with an ATAS certificate before they make their student visa application. Students and researchers who are nationals of EU countries, the European Economic Area (EEA), Australia, Canada, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore, South Korea, Switzerland, or the United States of America do not need an ATAS certificate. They can find more information about the ATAS certificate on the UK Government website.

Translations

If their documents are not in English, they will need to submit the document in their language and include a fully certified translation by a professional translator or translation company of these documents. The translation must provide the following:

A statement from the translator or translation company confirming that it is an accurate translation of the original document.

The date of the translation

The translator or an official of the translation company's full name and signature and,

The translator or translation company's contact details.

They can find more information under the 'Translating Documents' section of the Student Route Caseworker Guidance.

Under 18

If they are under 18 years old at the time of application, they will need to provide a letter from their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) to show that they support their application. They will also need to provide a copy of their birth certificate (or another government-issued document) that shows the names of their parents. They can find more information under the 'Parental Consent of Students and Child Students under 18' section of the Student Route Caseworker Guidance.

Differentiation Arrangements

The differentiation arrangements mean that some nationals are not usually required to submit their qualifications or evidence of their money with their student visa application. However, if they qualify for differentiation arrangements, it is important that they have their qualifications and financial documents available and in the required format, as UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) may request this evidence during the application process. Failure to provide these documents, when asked, will lead to their application being refused. As outlined in Appendix Student (paragraph ST22) of the Immigration Rules they can benefit from the differentiation arrangement when making their student visa application if:

- They hold a passport which shows they are registered as a British National (Overseas), or which was issued by the competent authorities of Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR, or Taiwan (which includes the number of the identification card issued by the competent authority of Taiwan); OR
- They are a national of any of the following: Australia, Austria, Bahrain, Barbados, Belgium, Botswana, Brazil, Brunei, Bulgaria, Cambodia, Canada, Chile, China, Croatia, Republic of Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, The Dominican Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Malta, Mauritius, Mexico,

Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Oman, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Serbia, Singapore, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, Tunisia, United Arab Emirates, United States of America.

They are considered a low-risk applicant if they are applying for a student visa (inside or outside the UK), and they are a national listed above as outlined in paragraph 22 of Appendix ST of the Immigration Rules. This means they will not normally need to submit their qualifications or evidence of their money with their student visa application. In all situations, UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) may request this evidence during the application process, so it is important to have their qualifications available and in the required format. Please refer to the section 'Differentiation arrangements' for more information.

Financial document checklists:

Financial Documents

Students' financial documents must be presented in the correct format as outlined in the Financial Requirement Caseworker Guidance.

Please see below a checklist for each financial document.

Personal Bank Statements or Passbooks

Personal bank statements or passbooks, either original or electronic, covering a consecutive 28-day period ending no more than 31 days before the day of their visa application, must include all the following:

- Their name (or the name of their parent/legal guardian - if applicable)
- The account numbers
- The bank's name and logo
- The bank's contact details or branch name or code
- The amount of funds in their account

Bank Letter

They can provide a bank letter which must confirm the following:

- Their name (or the name of their parent/legal guardian - if applicable)
- The date of the letter
- The account number
- The bank's name and logo
- The bank's contact details or branch name or code
- The amount of funds in their account
- A statement confirming the minimum amount of funds have been in their account in the last 28 days

Any letter issued by their bank must be used to apply for their visa application within 31 days of the date of the letter. This can be the easiest and most simple way to provide evidence that they have the correct amount of maintenance funds.

Certificate(s) of Deposit

A certificate issued by a bank to confirm that they (or their parent/legal guardian) have deposited a specific amount of money. Certificates of deposit will normally be accepted if the certificate confirms the following:

- Their name (or the name of their parent/legal guardian - if applicable)
- The date of the certificate which cannot be older than 31 days
- The account number
- The bank's name and logo
- The bank's contact details or branch name or code
- The amount of funds
- The date the funds were deposited
- A statement confirming the funds can be withdrawn at any point

The Certificate of Deposit must show that the funds have been held for more than 28 consecutive days.

Official Financial Sponsorship Letter

An official financial sponsor can be their own government or the UK government, the British Council, or any international organisation, international company, university, or independent school. They must provide a letter from the sponsor on official letter-headed paper that includes all the following:

- Their name
- The name and contact details of the official financial sponsor
- The date of the letter
- The length of the sponsorship
- The amount of money the sponsor is giving to them or a statement that their official financial sponsor will cover all their fees and living costs. They must ensure their official financial sponsor knows the amount of funds UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) will expect them to have access to.

If they will be receiving sponsorship from an official financial or government sponsor that does not cover all of the fees and maintenance, please remember that they will have to show that they have the rest of the required maintenance in a format that meets UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) requirements.

Loan Letter

A letter confirming educational loan funds must include the following:

- Their name
- The date of the letter (the loan letter cannot be dated more than six months before the date of their visa application)
- The loan provider/financial institution's name and logo
- The funds available as a loan
- Confirmation that the loan is provided by their national government, their state or regional government, a government-sponsored student loan company, or is part of an academic or educational loans scheme
- Confirmation that the loan funds will be released to them before traveling to the UK and that there are no terms and conditions attached to the release of the funds
- Confirmation that the loan provider is regulated by either the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) or the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) or, in the case of an overseas loan, the official regulatory body for the purpose of issuing student loans in the country the institution is in and where the money is held. For example, if their loan letter is from India, the loan letter needs to state the loan provider is regulated by the Reserve Bank of India.

If they are from the USA relying on Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), their loan letter will meet the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) format requirements, as long as the loan they take out covers the course fees and living costs as stipulated by UKVI.

Funds Not Held in Their Name

UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) state money used for their Student visa application must be held in either:

- Their name
- Their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) name. They will need to submit a letter giving them permission to use their funds and one of the following additional documents:
    - Birth certificate that shows the name of their parent(s)
    - A certificate of adoption that shows the name of their parent(s) or legal guardian(s)
    - A court or government-issued document naming their legal guardian or establishing the sole responsibility of one parent
- Their spouse's name (for example, husband or wife) only if their spouse is applying for a student dependant visa at the same time as they are applying for their Student visa. Please see the Dependant page for further guidance on their eligibility to bring dependants to the UK. Please note they will need to show funds for themselves and their dependants.
- A joint account only if they are named on the account

Top Tips When Preparing Their Documents

When preparing their financial documents, it is important to note the following advice:

- It is a good idea to hold more money than they need in order to consider currency exchange rates, as the rates may change during the 28-day period
- Do not use any of the money in their account until after their visa has been issued to them
- The money they need to show in their account must not drop below the required amount for a single day
- The financial documents must not be more than 31 days old
- Use the official exchange rate website OANDA to convert their currency, if their money is not in UK pounds sterling
- Don't forget to include any translations if any of their documents are not in English. Please refer to the section on 'Translations' under the 'Application Documents' tab for more information, as there are specific requirements for translations.

They can find more information about the financial evidence on the UKCISA website.

Certificates:

Graduation Document Process for Students

Students graduating after September 2021 receive both a hard-copy certificate and a verified digital copy of their certificate or diploma supplement.

The process of producing hard-copy certificates begins as soon as classifications are published on UEL Direct, and it is expected that students should receive their certificate and transcript no later than 12 weeks after publication of award, although this cannot be guaranteed.

Paper copies of award documents for full awards will automatically be sent to the address registered with the university within 12 weeks. Students should ensure their address details are correct on UEL Direct to avoid significant delays in receiving their certificate.

Digital certificates are available within two working days of classifications being published on UEL Direct. If a student's classification has not been published on UEL Direct, they will not be able to see their digital certificate on the University of East London eCertification Portal, even if they have registered before then.

Award dates are detailed on Key Term Dates | University of East London.

Students should not contact the Student Hub before the date detailed in the link, as the university is unable to provide a digital certificate before this date.

The Portal will enable students to:

- View a verified digital copy of their certificate or diploma supplement
- Download/Print a copy of their certificate or diploma supplement
- Create connections that allow them to share their digital document(s) with anyone they choose, such as potential employers

Students will be sent a link to register once their classification has been published on UEL Direct.

Registration Instructions for Students

Students should be careful when registering. If their details are not in the correct format or do not match UEL Direct, their account will require manual approval, resulting in a significant delay in accessing their digital certificate.

- Register using the UEL student ID (numbers only, not the 'u'), and the personal email address to ensure lifetime access to their documents.
- Use the name held for them at the University of East London on UEL Direct, including or excluding any middle names.

Students must use the email address they registered to graduate with. Using a different email address will delay their access to the system as their registration must be checked and approved. If students can't remember the email address they used, they can contact the hub providing their name, date of birth, and student number.

Information about Accessing and Verifying Your Certificate

Can I Print My Certificate Myself?

The Student Verification Portal allows students to access and view their certificates. They can download and print a copy from the preview screen. However, this is an unverified copy and will be watermarked. The QR code can be used to confirm the details on the certificate match the details in the system. Students will receive a verified hard copy from the University within 12 weeks of being awarded.

Certificate Display Issues

Some browsers may not render the certificates as well as others. Certificates may not display correctly in Microsoft Edge or Internet Explorer. It is recommended to try using Chrome or Firefox. If the certificate still does not look like the example, students can use the 'Report' function (yellow button) in the view documents section of the student verification portal and describe the problem. This will send a message to the admin team and can be checked for them.

Access for Third Parties

Students can create a Connection with third parties (employers, universities, etc.) giving permission for them to log in and view their qualification to verify its authenticity. They can see Connections on the dashboard to start. Students will be asked how long they wish to allow access for. After this date, third parties will no longer be able to access their information.

Third Party Access to Documents

Third parties can register for the verification portal. Once registered, they can request to create a 'Connection' with a portal user (alumni student). If the user approves the request, they will be able to view their documents for a limited time. Alternatively, they can request that a user invites them to create a connection with them. They will only be able to see the documents that the user has given permission to share with them, and documents are only valid when viewed in the Verification Portal.

Service Charges

Currently, there is no charge to access the Student Verification Portal or the Verification Portal to view documents. Hard copy documents cannot be ordered via these services at this time.

Assistance with the Student Verification Portal

For assistance with using the Student Verification Portal, students can contact the hub providing their name, date of birth, and student number.

Progression Decision:

Progression decisions are end of year assessment board decisions for undergraduate students and will inform future re-enrolment and module registration for the next academic year. These decisions will be published in results page in UEL Direct following the Progression Board and indicate whether a student is progressing to the next level, remaining at the same level (either to continue with new modules at that level, repeat failed modules or repeat the year) or in some instances, that they are unable to continue with their course.

P=PROGRESS to the next level of study (congratulations, all modules have been passed at the previous level)

PC=PROGRESS to next level of study (congratulations, all modules have been passed at the previous level)

PS=CONTINUE with studies (congratulations, all modules have been passed as a part-time student)

PM=PROGRESS to next level of study and retake one failed module from previous academic year (this retaken module will be capped when passed)

PP=CONTINUE with studies and RETAKE failed modules (results will be capped) from previous academic year for a Part-time student

PF=Previously a full-time student but made Part-time to RETAKE one or more failed modules from the previous academic year (results will be capped)

R=REPEAT modules taken in the previous academic year or, if part-time, all modules taken previously. (Results will be uncapped under a repeat year decision)

ADM=Progression decision DEFERRED – Resit available, please prepare

ADR=Exceptional THIRD ASSESSMENT OPPORTUNITY permitted through achieving 100 credits at undergraduate level (for full-time students). - You are strongly encouraged to engage with the third opportunity now to complete 120 credits at your current level, but it is an optional opportunity. - There is only a short period to submit, please act now if you are going to submit - a final progression decision on your achieved credits will be made at a September progression board

AB=A progression decision cannot be made due to an investigation for ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

AC=A progression decision cannot be made due to an OUTSTANDING RESULT OR INCOMPLETE PLACEMENT

NA=COMPLETED study or withdrawn and Academic award conferred

NAC=COMPLETED study or withdrawn Academic award conferred

NO=WITHDRAWN and not eligible for award

FN=CANNOT CONTINUE the course due to insufficient achievement/engagement. Please contact your academic adviser or the Student Hub if you require more information or support.

Students can appeal their progression decision if they feel that it is not right.

Student’s Union

By joining University of East London, students automatically become a member of the Students' Union. They exist to represent all UEL students. They provide support, representation, facilities, services, entertainment and activities for all members.

They run for students, by students. They have three full time Students’ Union Officers who are annually elected by the student body to direct the Union and represent its students. The Students’ Union offers the opportunity to get involved and make your issues heard.

Academic Appeals:

The appeals process allows students to request a review of academic decisions. There must be evidence which shows that something has affected your academic performance.

Students cannot appeal just because they disagree with their grade.

Students can only appeal within 10 working days of your assessment results being released on UEL Direct. If you appeal at any other time, your appeal will be considered late. This means that the Appeals team will only consider it if you can provide strong evidence showing why you could not appeal during the relevant appeals window.

Rules to Appeal:

1: There is evidence that the extenuating circumstances were so severe as to have prevented the student from making an informed decision at the time as to whether to attempt an assessment or to apply for extenuation.

2: There is clear evidence of a significant administrative error on the part of the University or in the conduct of the assessment/examination and that this accounted for your performance.

3: The assessments had not been conducted in accordance with the approved regulations for the course of study.

4: If some other material irregularity had occurred in the procedures of the Extenuating Circumstances Officer, the Assessment Board and/or the Board of Examiners.

How to Appeal:

Submit an appeal form via the Student Appeals page. The deadline will be 10 working days (days that are not weekends or bank holidays) from the date the formal decision was released.

Completing the Appeal form:

How you fill in the appeals form will depend on the type of appeal you are submitting. For example, if you are submitting a late extenuation appeal, you should follow the instructions on our Late Extenuation Appeals page. If you are appealing against a progression decision, you can have a look at our Progression Decisions page.

If students would like one of the advisors to provide feedback on their draft responses, they would have to email them to studentadvice@uel.ac.uk and complete the Contact Form. Student Union cannot provide specific advice without the contact form, as they will need to accept our user agreement.

Students should not miss the deadline to submit their appeal because they are waiting on a response from student union. University of East London will not accept that as a reason for submitting late and the Students' Union expects all students to take responsibility for ensuring that their appeal is submitted on time.

What happens after Submitting Appeal:

The appeal will initially be referred to the Complaints and Appeals team, who will assess whether the appeal meets the grounds stated. After this:

- Student may be referred to a different procedure, such as a complaint.

- Students appeal may be rejected because it is not made under permissible grounds, or it is out of time without reasonable justification.

- Students appeal may be moved to formal consideration.

If your appeal is moved to formal consideration, it will then be sent to the relevant school. You will receive your outcome once the school has considered all the relevant details. After this:

- Students may have the chance to resit the relevant component uncapped.

- Students grade or progression decision may be amended, or extenuation may be granted.

- Students may be allowed to continue the course, retaking the failed module in the next academic year if permissible.

- Students appeal may be dismissed.

Review of the decision:

There is one final review stage if students believe that the Appeal outcome is incorrect or unreasonable. This is called a Panel Review. Students can request this if they believe that the outcome was unreasonable, or if there is new evidence that students were reasonably unable to provide earlier. If they go through this process, the Appeals team will again undertake an initial assessment, and then their appeal will be considered by an independent panel of university staff. They may be requested to attend a hearing at this stage. Once this stage is complete, they will be sent a final decision and a Completion of Procedures letter.

Complaints:

If students feel that our University has not delivered the standard of service which it would be reasonable to expect, they may be entitled to lodge a complaint, in accordance with section 14 of the Manual of General Regulations. A complaint may be submitted collectively by a group of students who should nominate a spokesperson who will be the channel of communication for the group, however, a complaint may not be lodged by a third party on behalf of the complainant. The complaints procedure is an internal University process.

- The procedure has three possible stages:

  STAGE 1: Local Resolution

  STAGE 2: Formal Complaint

  STAGE 3: Review

- Complainants are strongly advised to make every reasonable effort to resolve their complaint informally through meeting with the member of our university staff most directly concerned with the matter, such as the Course or Module Leader, before proceeding to Stage 2 and submitting a formal complaint. Students are also advised at this point to discuss the matter with a member of the Students' Union Advice and Information Service.
- Complaints must normally be lodged within set time limits (please see Complaints Procedure for further details). This ensures that the people involved still remember the case, and the facts can be established.
- Further information about our university's complaints procedure, including a link to the online formal Complaints Form, is available for view at https://bit.ly/36N6HC2
- If students would like to discuss a complaint they have made (or are considering making) they can contact the Students' Union, they should call 020 8223 7025 or e-mail Studentadvice@uel.ac.uk for an appointment. Alternatively, they can discuss the matter with a relevant member of staff from the School/Service such as the Course Leader or

Module Leader. Please note, however, that students studying with a partner institution are not eligible to use the services of the Students' Union.

- If they have any queries about the complaints process, please email the Complaints and Appeals team at complaints@uel.ac.uk

Other Complaints:

- Separate procedures exist for the following, which therefore cannot form the substance of a complaint:

Appeals against the decisions of Assessment Boards (see Part 7 of the Manual of General Regulations);

Appeals against annual monitoring reviews, transfer of research degree registration or oral examination decision for postgraduate research students (see Part 9 of the Manual of General Regulations);

Appeals against the decisions of the Extenuation Panel (see Part 6 of the Manual of General Regulations).

Complaints against the Students' Union (see the Complaints Procedure in the Students' Union constitution).

Appeals against decisions taken under disciplinary proceedings (see Part 12 of the Manual of General Regulations).

Complaints about businesses operating on university premises, but not owned by our university (contact the Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Chief Operating Officer).

Complaints about the behaviour of other students (see Part 12 of the Manual of General Regulations this Manual).

Appeals against the decisions of Academic Misconduct Panels (see Part 8 of the Manual of General Regulations)

Appeals against the decisions of Attendance Appeal Panels (see the University's Attendance Policy).

Student Records

Student Records is an internal team that deal with:

Enrolment

They oversee the online enrolment process, ensuring that all students engage with it to become fully enrolled students of UEL. This involves maintaining enrolment invitation and reminder emails and providing enrolment support to students and staff.

Module Registration

In collaboration with the Academic Schools, they develop Module Diets to facilitate students registering for their modules online or via the Hub. They also manage individual module amendments in response to requests via the Hub and Schools.

Course Amendments

Student Records handle amendments to students' course details, including transferring students to alternative UEL courses or amending course details such as level or mode of attendance.

Withdrawals and Breaks

They collaborate with various stakeholders, including the Hub, Student Engagement and Retention Team, and Registry School Teams, to process students' requests to withdraw or take a break from studies.

Change of Circumstances (COCs)

They liaise with the Student Loans Company to report changes in students' studies, known as Change of Circumstances, which may affect students' entitlement to and receipt of student loans funding.

Support for Statutory Data Returns

They collaborate closely with UEL's Strategic Planning Team to input and maintain accurate data in support of UEL's statutory reporting duties to regulatory bodies, including HESA and ESFA.

Optional Modules:

Students may change onto an alternative available optional module by contacting the hub within the first two weeks of teaching of the module. After this period, student records will seek the Course Leader's approval for any changes to a student's module registration.

Student will get access to Moodle once module registration has been completed. If modules are registered but has a problem with accessing Moodle, student should be referred to IT for assistance.

Modules are not always registered automatically, module diets are only set-up for part time students in their first year of study, as further module registration for subsequent years will require manual review to see which modules have been passed or failed.

In addition to this, Student records manually register modules for most continuing postgraduate students, as module registration will be dependent on the modules that students have passed or failed.

Students entering UEL with accredited prior learning (APL) and continuing students returning from breaks of study would also require manual module registration.

Requests regarding this, should be raised up with Student Records for further assistance with.

Online Enrolment:

Online enrolment is the process by which the University collects necessary information. Online enrolment is mandatory and must be completed by all new and returning students each academic year or in each new year of study. If students fail to complete online enrolment, they cannot study at UEL and will be withdrawn.

Online enrolment is completed in UEL DIRECT. All eligible students will automatically receive an invitation by email ahead of each new academic year or new enrolment period. New students will receive emails to their personal and UEL email addresses, whereas returning students will only receive it to their UEL email address.

Deadline for Enrolment:

Students should enrol as soon as possible and no later than the deadline specified in their enrolment invitation email. Typically, the enrolment deadline for UEL students is 14 days after the course start date, though students studying with some of UEL's partnership institutions may have longer to enrol.

Missing Enrolment Deadline:

Students who've failed to enrol may request an extension to their deadline via the 'authority to enrol' (or ATE) process. 'Authority to enrol' requests must be approved by a student's course leader or head of department, by UEL's Finance department and by the International Compliance team (where applicable). If approved, students will receive a further 7 days to complete online enrolment.

Students can also defer their offer to future year or request a break of studies via contacting Student Hub.

Mode of Attendance:

A student's mode of attendance is determined by the number of credits they undertake in an academic year or session, as defined in UEL's Manual of General Regulations.

Undergraduate students are classed as full time if they take more than 90 credits in an academic year, or as part time if they take 90 credits or fewer. Though normally undergraduate students will study 120 credits in full time mode, and 80 credits in part time mode, across an academic year.

Postgraduate students are also classed as full time if they study more than 90 credits in an academic year, and as part time if they take 90 credits or fewer. Typically, a student undertaking a master's degree in full time mode will study 180 credits across an academic year; in part time mode these credits are normally split across two academic years (e.g., 90 credits per year). Part time postgraduate students may sometimes undertake 60 credits (two 30 credit modules) in their first year of study and 120 credits (two 30 credit modules plus a 60-credit dissertation) in their second year of study. Postgraduate students taking 60 credits in a single semester will be classed as full time.

Changing from Full Time to Part Time:

Students can change mode of attendance from PT to FT if student records receive request from student/school within a good time such as two weeks of teaching.

There may be other instances where student records cannot change a student's mode of attendance. A student may not be eligible for student finance and so should be encouraged to contact the Student Money Advice and Rights Team (SMART) for advice about their funding entitlement before making a request.

International students holding a student visa may not be permitted to change their mode of attendance to part time, and so should also contact the International Student Advice team for advice on how this change might affect their visa.

Changing from Part Time to Full term:

Students should be able to change from PT to FT if it is requested in a good time such as within first two weeks of teaching.

If the request is submitted after this point, student records would require confirmation from the school (usually from the course leader) that the student has been engaging with the module/s they would like to join.

If a student's mode of attendance is dictated by a progression decision given at a previous assessment board (if they were forced part time to repeat failed modules for example) then it would not be possible to change to full time mode.

Changing Courses:

If a student would like to change courses at UEL, they would need to first seek the permission from the course leader of the course they would like to move onto. Once permission has been obtained, a student should raise a course change request in MyPortal and upload the course leader's written confirmation (e.g., an email). The request will then be directed to Student Records for processing.

If the student holds a visa, Student Records will refer them to speak with the International Student Advice (ISA) team before transferring their course, as this may impact their eligibility for a student visa. The time of year may also affect a student's ability to transfer courses. If they are an undergraduate student, student records may need to wait for a progression decision to be confirmed, and/or a student may be required to pay tuition fees any studies undertaken on the previous course.

Dropping Placement Year:

Students who do not wish to undertake a placement year and wish to transfer to the one-year version of the course (without placement) can only do so within the first two weeks of term when they first start their course.

If this is the case, students should first seek the permission of their course leader and seek advice from the International Student Advice team where applicable before raising a request with the hub.

After this two-week period, requests to remove the placement module and/or transfer to the one-year version of the course (without placement) will be rejected by the respective School.

If students express personal difficulties which may prohibit them from undertaking a placement, they should be directed to Student Services for support, and/or they may wish to consider taking a break of studies.

If students ask to be dropped from the placement module to pursue a job opportunity, they may be able to request that the company offering employment can initially take them on a placement as part of their course.

Tuition Fee Breakdown:

Full time students' tuition fees are charged at a flat annual rate. Part time students are charged tuition fees equivalent to the number of credits they're studying in an academic year (or year of study).

At the start of each new year of study, Student Records assume that a part time undergraduate student will undertake 80 credits across the year, and a part time postgraduate student will undertake 90 credits across the year and charge them accordingly.

After 10 weeks of study part time undergraduate students are then charged by the credits registered on their student record (rather than the assumed credit value). For part time postgraduate students, they are charged by the credits registered on their student record after 40 weeks of study.

Student Records set the tuition fees for students whilst Credit Control oversee obtaining this money from the students.

SMART

Once Student Finance have finalised assessment, they will send confirmation that they are not providing a Tuition Fee Loan. SMART will contact student to discuss options based on individual circumstances and advise on how to move forward with students' enrolment.

If student wish to enrol in the meantime, please select a different payment option.
